What students should know is that in order to enter heaven we must have lived as Christ lived, loving and caring for each other. John saw a great vision when shown the end-times. He talks about God's children who are 'sealed.' There are 144,000 who will do the final evangelization of the 'four corners of the known people in the world. The 144,000 have all their trials and tears behind them! There are many signs of the end-times, and there are always enough bad players to make us think 'this is it!' God is giving us the entire outline of how to spend eternity with Him in the Beatitudes. 		Most interesting idea? What do you want your students to get from this passage? Projects? Suggestions for Catechists

1. Check for understanding by asking open-ended questions to reinforce the message of this liturgy. "What is Jesus saying here?"
2. Consistently review looking up books of the bible and references in the Catechism of the Catholic Church within your class, not as a separate lesson. It should develop into a routine habit and rote knowledge of both vital references for our Faith! New doors will open when the Catholic Faith is in full view!
3. Do you have your students keep a mass journal? Do you share the following week?
4. Word Wall and Idea Wall?
5. Are you plotting the journey you are taking this year with your students? Grape vine of butcher paper, brick path, birthday bricks, jig saw puzzle pieces, scripture path, At the Well as Christ to the outcasts, etc.
6. Have you shared YOUR story with your class? Telling kids your own stories <https://www.catholicmom.com/articles/experiencing-christ-through-our-stories>
7. Materials to use for Penance, praying the Rosary and studying the Saints are all available in my office.

Solemnity of All Saints

Reading 1

RV 7:2-4, 9-14

I, John, saw another angel come up from the East, holding the seal of the living God. He cried out in a loud voice to the four angels who were given power to damage the land and the sea, "Do not damage the land or the sea or the trees until we put the seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God." I heard the number of those who had been marked with the seal, one hundred and forty-four thousand marked from every tribe of the children of Israel.

After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue.

They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands. They cried out in a loud voice: "Salvation comes from our God, who is seated on the throne, and from the Lamb." All the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures. They prostrated themselves before the throne, worshiped God, and exclaimed:

"Amen. Blessing and glory, wisdom and thanksgiving, honor, power, and might be to our God forever and ever. Amen."

Then one of the elders spoke up and said to me, "Who are these wearing white robes, and where did they come from?" I said to him, "My lord, you are the one who knows."

He said to me, "These are the ones who have survived the time of great distress; they have washed their robes and made them white in the Blood of the Lamb."

Responsorial Psalm

PS 24:1BC-2, 3-4AB, 5-6

R. (see 6) Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

The LORD's are the earth and its fullness;
the world and those who dwell in it.

For he founded it upon the seas
and established it upon the rivers.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

Who can ascend the mountain of the LORD?
or who may stand in his holy place?

One whose hands are sinless, whose heart is clean,
who desires not what is vain.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

He shall receive a blessing from the LORD,

a reward from God his savior.

Such is the race that seeks him,
that seeks the face of the God of Jacob.

R. Lord, this is the people that longs to see your face.

Reading 2

1 JN 3:1-3

Beloved:

See what love the Father has bestowed on us that we may be called the children of God.

Yet so we are.

The reason the world does not know us
is that it did not know him.

Beloved, we are God's children now;

what we shall be has not yet been revealed.

We do know that when it is revealed we shall be like him,
for we shall see him as he is.

Everyone who has this hope based on him makes himself pure,
as he is pure.

Alleluia

MT 11:28

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

Come to me, all you who labor and are burdened,
and I will give you rest, says the Lord.

R. Alleluia, alleluia.

THE BEATITUDES – THE GUIDE TO HEAVEN - MT 5:1-12A

When Jesus saw the crowds, he went up the mountain, and after he had sat down, his disciples came to him.

He began to teach them, saying:

*“Blessed are the poor in spirit,
for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.*

*Blessed are they who mourn,
for they will be comforted.*

*Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the land.*

*Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.*

*Blessed are the merciful,
for they will be shown mercy.*

*Blessed are the clean of heart,
for they will see God.*

*Blessed are the peacemakers,
for they will be called children of God.*

Blessed are they who are persecuted for the sake of righteousness,

for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me.

*Rejoice and be glad,
for your reward will be great in heaven.”*
