Continuing to Build the Bridge

by Msgr. Marion Makarewicz

Our Lady of the Lake has taken the first steps in forming our ministry of outreach to divorced Catholics. I'm taking this opportunity to encourage all parishioners to pray in regard to this effort. First, that the Lord may guide us. Second, that the Lord awaken in the hearts of those who are estranged from the faith because of circumstances surrounding a divorce a desire for peace and reconciliation. Third, that every adult parishioner ask God to point out how they can assist in our efforts to build a bridge to divorced Catholics and walk with them on the journey to God's grace.

Vincent Frese, who is our mentor in this ministry, published a very powerful letter to Pope Francis and the bishops of the world in October 2014 offering his advice for the Church in ministering to divorced Catholics. That letter can be found in its entirety at his website vincefrese.com. I would like to quote a part of this letter as a way of summarizing what we need to accomplish in our own outreach ministry to make "a divorce recovery ministry a standard offering at the parish level." This is what needs to happen:

- Embrace Catholics from the earliest stages of divorce, and throughout the following recovery, rebuilding, and renewal phases, where they can experience the compassionate and merciful love of Christ in the context of the sacraments and the Catholic faith. The more welcome divorcing Catholics feel from the very first time they approach the Church, and throughout their entire divorce experience, the less likely they will ever leave. Plus, the more engaged they are with the Church, the greater the opportunity to minister to them and help them stay close to the sacraments—the very thing that will bring them the greatest healing. (If you have to go through a divorce, thank God you are Catholic!)

- Provide a place where they are made to feel welcome in the

NOTES FROM VICKI

What Bible Stories Come to Mind Using These Pieces?

Jesus telling them to 'cast their nets?' The storm at sea? Explaining how Jesus sees us all as His children? How He loves the 'least of these' unconditionally? If these and other stories come to mind.....Please think about becoming a Catechist at Our Lady of the Lake!

Mother Teresa is known to say, "God does not need qualified people to do His work, he qualifies those who do His work because they are called." Neither a teaching degree nor teaching experience is necessary to bring the Word of God to our children!

We need men or women at least 18 years old who truly love to have dialogue with young folks from Kindergarten to High School. It is guaranteed that you will learn from them as much as you teach!

If there is a small tug at your heart while reading this, you are being called!

Please let me help you discern a place on our team of devoted and faith-filled catechists. That might be a lead teacher, a classroom aide or home helper with projects. We are desperate for catechists to support our teachers in every grade; it is vital to have a second adult in every classroom for restroom breaks and emergencies.

AND...We will be starting Children's Liturgy soon and will need teachers to take Pre-K and First grade to the chapel during the Homily. All materials are furnished!

AND...There is a special need for 8th grade teachers and high school formation Core Team Members. Core Teams consist of adults and students who plan and implement lessons and service projects.

I will help at every step and coach anyone who would like to put a toe in the water! I promise to make it fun and interesting, while you make a difference in our parish! God Bless! Vicki

EDUCATION COMMISSION

Chair: Linda Adams

The next Education Commission will be Thursday, Aug. 5th at 6 PM in Fellowship Hall. All with interest are welcome to attend.

WHAT IS LIFE ALL ABOUT?
WHAT'S REALLY IMPORTANT?
How life-changing the Covid pandemic has been for us this past year. It has challenged us to grow in unexpected ways. Active Catholics are invited to use this as a rare opportunity to explore the deepest meaning and purpose of human life by making a Cursillo (pronounced ker-SEE-yo), a Spanish word meaning a short course. It is a once-in-a-lifetime experience that starts on a Thursday evening. You will be guided step by step thru the weekend by a priest, deacon and a team of cursillistas (those who have already completed a Cursillo); in a place of seclusion and peace; with all of your needs taken care; to explore the deepest meaning and purpose of life. Many Catholics finish their Cursillo weekend inspired to make changes, tweak their priorities and journey deeper into the mystery of life. So, if you are ready for a deeper encounter with yourself, with others, and with God, then contact Kelly Hamrin, 573-365-2241 x 5 for more information and an application.

ADORATION

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament is available every Friday from 8:30 AM to 4:00 PM.

All others are invited to attend Adoration anytime throughout the day. If you are able to commit to a regular weekly time slot on Fridays, please contact Debbie Noland or Mary or Kelly in the office 365-2241.

The goal is to have at least three persons committed to a period of adoration so that if there are occasions when someone can't make it, there will always be someone present. If you foresee not being able to attend during your committed hour, please contact the others who have signed up for that period to ensure that someone is there.

As the health care facilities begin to reopen to visitors, we are in need of those who can take the Eucharist to those in need. Our parish works with St. Anthony and St. Patrick to cover Lake Regional Hospital. We are responsible for Tuesdays and Fridays.

The other facilities in our parish boundaries include Osage Beach Rehab and Health Care, Ozark Rehab and Health Care, Arrowhead Senior Living, Golden Gate Estates, and Stonebridge Senior Living's Lakeside Meadows. We also have a number of homebound seniors who would like to receive on a weekly basis.

We are looking for a number of folks who are fully vaccinated and are willing to be commissioned as a Eucharistic Minister. Please contact the office.

Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the divine power of God, cast into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world for the ruin of souls. Amen

Today, Sunday, 6 June 2021, is the Feast of Corpus Christi, also called Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. First, what is a Solemnity in our Catholic Faith? A Solemnity in the Catholic Faith is the highest liturgical rank of a feast in the ecclesiastical calendar where there are fourteen solemnities celebrated yearly in our universal Church. Corpus Christi is celebrated the Thursday after Trinity Sunday. Since it is a moveable observance, it can also be celebrated on the following Sunday.

The feast was proposed by Saint Thomas Aquinas, Doctor of the Church, to Pope Urban IV, to create a feast focused solely on the Holy Eucharist that emphasized the joy of the Eucharist being the Body and Blood, Soul and Divinity of Jesus Christ.

This feast originated through the Eucharistic miracle of Bolsena, Italy, in 1263. Father Peter of Prague, a German priest, stopped at Bolsena while on a pilgrimage to Rome. He was pious but found it difficult to accept that Christ was truly present in the consecrated Host. While celebrating Mass above the tomb of St. Christina (located in the church named for this martyr), he spoke the words of consecration and immediately Blood started to seep from the consecrated Host and trickle over his hands and onto the altar. At first the priest tried to hide the Blood, but eventually he interrupted the Mass and asked to be taken to the neighboring city of Orvieto, where Pope Urban IV resided. The Pope sent representatives to investigate. When the facts were ascertained, he ordered the bishop of the diocese to bring the Host and the linen cloth bearing the stains of Blood to him.

The linen bearing the spots of Blood is reverently enshrined and exhibited in the Cathedral of Orvieto, Italy. Again, Pope Urban IV prompted by this miracle commissioned St. Thomas Aquinas to compose the Office for the Mass and Liturgy of the Hours to celebrate the Most Holy Body of the Lord – Corpus Christi. One year after the miracle, August 1264, Pope Urban IV introduced Aquinas's composition, and through a papal bull, an edict issued by the Pope, instituted the feast of Corpus Christi.

In today's Gospel, while Jesus and the Apostles were eating at the last supper, Jesus took a loaf of bread, and after blessing it he broke it, gave it to them, saying, "Take; this is my body." Then Jesus took a cup, and after giving thanks He gave it again to His Apostles, and all of them drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many. Truly I tell you, I will never again drink of the fruit of the vine until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

So, how does the bread and wine that we offer at each Mass become the Body and Blood of our Lord, Jesus Christ? This change occurs during Mass which the Church calls transubstantiation, "change of substance". At the Consecration of the Mass, the priest says the words which Jesus Himself pronounced over bread and wine, "This is My Body," "This is the chalice of My Blood," "Do this in remembrance of Me." Through transubstantiation, the physical substance has not changed. However, it is now the Body and Blood of Jesus.

At the last supper, Jesus gave Himself to us in the form of the bread and wine. Declaring this to be our food and drink with taking, eating, drinking and finally, giving ourselves wholly to Him.

Jesus gave us His most Holy Body and Blood at the last supper. However, that last supper was not the end – but the beginning! Corpus Christi Blessings – Dcn Jim Church and are encouraged to participate in church life, especially the Mass and the sacraments.

- Provide spiritual guidance, by a priest or other qualified person, to resolve any issues specific to their circumstances that might inhibit their receiving the sacraments.

- Assist with providing counseling, or referral to a qualified Catholic counselor. Sadly, it is far too common that Catholics experiencing separation or divorce are referred to non-Catholic counselors, who, while certainly trying to do good, don't support the Catholic beliefs regarding the permanence of marriage. As a result, in an indirect way, the Church is contributing to Catholics leaving the faith.

- Be a resource to teach the divorced Catholic about the annulment process and answer any questions they might have to eliminate confusion and mitigate any potential feelings of rejection.

- Provide long-term support to divorced Catholics. Divorce recovery takes time—often a long time. The Church needs to accompany divorced Catholics on this uncertain and painful journey so they can experience full recovery. Further, this is another opportunity to form and catechize Catholics in their faith. Recovering from divorce is typically a time of reassessment of life's meaning and purpose. Being reintroduced to the beauty and truth of the Catholic faith offers the divorcee the opportunity to realign their life around this faith. This will create more vibrant, committed, and joyful apostles, elevating the entire Body of Christ.

- Provide similar levels of support and outreach to single parents as the Church does for unwed mothers. Divorce is devastating financially. This affects single parents in particular as they often face significant financial hardship raising children with greatly reduced income. This is further compounded if child support payments are delayed or stopped. This financial pressure often causes single parents to seek out remarriage as a means to alleviate this pressure and provide security for their children. This motivation is a cause for marriage outside the Church. It is not uncommon for Catholics that have pursued this route, to want to return to the Church once the initial financial uncertainty has passed. Providing support and outreach from the start of a single-parenting situation will make the Church a place of refuge, instead of a relationship outside the Church. Further, marriages established with these types of unhealthy motivations have a high failure rate and perpetuate the cycle of divorce.

- Provide support for kids experiencing divorce. Parents will often seek help for their children to cope with divorce before seeking help for themselves. If the level of divorce support in Catholic churches is poor for adults, it is even worse for children. This forces Catholics to seek help outside the church, typically from Protestant churches. As mentioned above, Protestant churches wealth of programs draws divorced Catholics away from the Church. Offering vital divorce support programs for adults and children will keep them close to the faith.

In the coming weeks, we will be providing more information and opportunities to our parishioners as we enlist their help in starting the conversations that lead to healing and reconciliation. I think Linda Bukalski said it so well in her talks at mass the other week reminding us that Jesus Christ himself modeled a conversation with someone whose marital life was in shambles. Jesus was thirsting for her faith. The Samaritan woman had no idea that she had anything to give to Jesus. But she did. In that conversation Jesus awakened in this woman the deepest longing in her heart that she never knew existed, her longing for unity with God.
