From the Pastor's Desk:

The 18th Sunday in Ordinary Time

To the Israelite community, God provided bread for His people in the desert. For us, His children, He gives us Bread from heaven, His own Son, to nourish us on our pilgrimage to holiness. All we need to do is to approach this priceless gift in humility and in total belief that what we receive is the very Body, Blood, Soul and Divinity of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. May we be transformed by what we receive and may we live as members---faithful members---of the Body of Christ. ~ Fr. Penn Medical Update: Father received his second round of immunotherapy last week. He will be receiving some additional radiation treatment on his side in the coming weeks. He is still experiencing a few side effects. Please keep him in your prayers and thank you for all of your support. We are so grateful for Our Lady of the Lake parishioners. ~The Office Staff

PARISHIONER NEWS

O.C.I.A. ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS

Jesus sent His disciples out to spread the Good News! We are also asked to give His message to others. One way we do this is through the O.C.I.A. (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults). You can share the Good News by telling those you may know who are interested in our faith and encouraging them to join the inquiry group this fall.

"Let the hearts of those who seek the Lord rejoice" (Psalm 105:3).

O.C.I.A. (Order of Christian Initiation of Adults) is the process in which adults study the Catholic faith, and if they desire, they become full, active, participating members of the Catholic Church. Weekly meetings are held to discuss scripture, our relationship with God, and much, much more.

For more information, please contact
Michele Haggerty, DRE (816) 210-8223.

TRAVELING VOCATIONS CRUCIFIX

Please continue to sign-up. We are wanting to promote this in our parish for an entire year. We just need 52 parishioners/families to sign-up to accomplish this! Stop at the Welcome Center in Fellowship Hall and commit to one week of praying for vocations.

The following are those scheduled for the Vocations Crucifix: This week is Lusica Hankins. The week of August 10-16 is open. Please sign up!

Would you like to commemorate a special occasion or honor a deceased loved one? You can do so with altar flowers. The cost for a basic bouquet is $75 and a specialty bouquet is $100. Contact the office for available dates.

Jesus said to them,
"I am the bread of life;
whoever comes to me
shall not hunger,
and whoever believes in me shall never thirst."

COMPASSION MEALS

Our Lady of the Lake has a ministry called Compassion Meals. It is for any parishioner who is either returning from the hospital, surgery, been dealing with an illness or injury. To "lighten the load" a bit during these trying times, this ministry provides a meal which is brought to the parishioner's home. At times, when one is homebound due to an injury, hospital stay or surgery - it is nice to know others are thinking and praying for you. If you know of any parishioner who would enjoy such a meal, please contact the Ministry by e-mailing the name of the parishioner to:

ourladycompassionmeals@gmail.com or texting, the POC directly at: 915.490.5765.
Thank you and God Bless.

Bring your CAN to Church.

HOPE HOUSE THRIFT STORE

As I have mentioned before, OLL has more volunteers at Hope House than any other area church. Many work in the food pantry and the sorting area. We are thrilled to be so well represented! Now, we are needing to recruit more members to assist on our assigned days to serve the front register. Each month OLL is given five days to offer two workers to work the main store registers. This is a great position for people with outgoing personalities who enjoy conversing with the customers, and those with a knack for customer service. Volunteers serve from 8:45 to 2:00, or two persons can split the time. Training is easy, the position is rewarding, and serving others is Hope House's mission. Great people; great time! Please contact me if you would like more information. I will fill you in and get your contact information for our texting group. Thank you for discerning this opportunity!

Upcoming volunteer dates: August 26th and 29th, September 5, 6 and 7.

LET ME KNOW which days you can help! Thank you!!

STEWARDSHIP COMMISSION

Chair: Gay Ann Christy

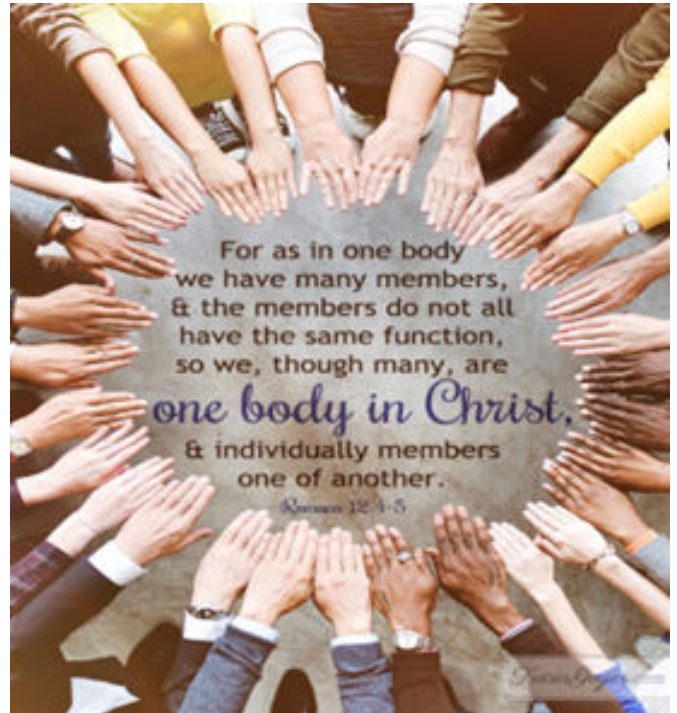

Stewardship: A 5 Part Series of a “Good Steward”

Stewardship: A 5 Part Series of a “Good Steward”

Part 5: Concluding the Habits of a “Good Steward”

Part of a Parish Community. While there are so many habits of a “Good Steward,” we want to conclude our series this week with one last key for success. No one is an island of knowledge and abilities, and to advance God’s kingdom on earth, we must work together. God has given us different skills to work together as one body. A “Good Steward” must understand their abilities, gifts, and responsibilities. They do not try to outshine others; instead, they work closely with others to serve for the kingdom of God. Romans 12:4–5 reminds us, “For as in one body we have many members, and the members do not all have the same function, so we, though many, are on body in Christy, and individually member one of another”. Our Stewardship Council is grateful for our parishioners, full-time, part-time, and visitors. Thank you for being “Good Stewards” by joining together in worship, sharing the good news, and serving our parish and community.

We are Shaping Our Future Together.

FAMILY FAITH FORMATION CORNER

(Reflection from Pflaum Gospel Weeklies)

Jesus said to them, “I am the bread of life.” –John 6:35

We perceive a pattern developing. Free food isn’t quite free, even when manna rains down from Heaven for all takers. Faith isn’t free, either, when professing the Creed winds up demanding your life in conformity with your words. Going to church is a whole lot more than free shelter from life’s storms. It also implies a surrender to service. And when Jesus says, “I am the bread of life,” count on this bread being both a gift and a responsibility.

“Give us this bread always,” the crowd around Jesus begs. Give us miracle bread that takes away the fear of want. You and I are part of that crowd, of course, asking for something we don’t fully understand. We want the bread that is really the life of Christ, so we’re assured of eternal life. And yes, the Eucharist is that kind of guarantee—but it’s not for free. Even though the ushers don’t stop and take tolls from us as we approach the sanctuary for Holy Communion, the Eucharist is not a free ride. Once Christ-life is in you, you are Christ for the sake of the world. Ask yourself: What did it cost Jesus to be Jesus?

How are you the bread of life for those around you—and those who are far off?

El decimoctavo domingo del tiempo ordinario

A la comunidad israelita, Dios le dio pan a su pueblo en el desierto. A nosotros, sus hijos, nos da el Pan del cielo, su propio Hijo, para nutrirnos en nuestro peregrinar hacia la santidad. Todo lo que tenemos que hacer es acercarnos a este don inestimable con humildad y con la total convicción de que lo que recibimos es el mismo Cuerpo, Sangre, Alma y Divinidad de nuestro Señor y Salvador, Jesucristo. Que seamos transformados por lo que recibimos y vivamos como miembros, fieles miembros, del Cuerpo de Cristo. ~ Padre Penn Actualización médica: El padre recibió su segunda ronda de inmunoterapia la semana pasada. Recibirá un tratamiento de radiación adicional en el costado en las próximas semanas. Aún sufre algunos efectos secundarios. Por favor, manténganlo en sus oraciones y gracias por todo su apoyo.

RINCÓN DE FORMACIÓN EN LA FE FAMILIAR

(Reflexión de Pflaum Gospel Weeklies)

Jesús les dijo: “Yo soy el pan de vida”. –Juan 6:35

Percibimos que se está desarrollando un patrón. La comida gratis no es del todo gratis, incluso cuando el maná cae del cielo para todos los que la toman. La fe tampoco es gratis cuando profesar el Credo termina exigiendo que tu vida esté en conformidad con tus palabras. Ir a la iglesia es mucho más que un refugio gratuito de las tormentas de la vida. También implica una entrega al servicio. Y cuando Jesús dice: “Yo soy el pan de vida”, cuenten con que este pan es tanto un regalo como una responsabilidad.

“Danos siempre de este pan”, ruega la multitud que rodea a Jesús. Danos un pan milagroso que quite el miedo a la necesidad. Tú y yo somos parte de esa multitud, por supuesto, pidiendo algo que no entendemos del todo. Queremos el pan que es realmente la vida de Cristo, para que se nos asegure la vida eterna. Y sí, la Eucaristía es ese tipo de garantía, pero no es gratis. Aunque los acomodadores no se detienen para cobrarnos el peaje cuando nos acercamos al santuario para recibir la Sagrada Comunión, la Eucaristía no es un viaje gratis. Una vez que la vida de Cristo está en ti, eres Cristo para el mundo. Pregúntate: ¿Cuánto le costó a Jesús ser Jesús? ¿En qué manera eres el pan de vida para quienes te rodean y para quienes están lejos?
