What Brings You Peace?

The gut reaction might be to have a “right answer” and say, “Jesus is my peaceful place! Jesus brings me peace!” No doubt, He is always the answer, however, other answers aren’t necessarily wrong. The Lord has created you with certain desires of your heart. To one person, listening to the waves of the ocean or the crackle of a beautiful fire brings peace. To another, peace comes from baking, building, or serving. Whichever of these bring you peace, the Lord wants that for you.

Our First Reading is a wonderful reminder that God has triumphed over sin and death and that we, as His faithful disciples, will live in the light of His glory one day. Until He comes again, we must remain faithful to Him as true disciples and good stewards of all the gifts He has given us. This reading calls us back to the spiritual reality that we are called to prepare for eternal life by the way that we use our gifts, here and now.

This week in Advent we light the second candle and ask for peace. The Lord loves you and wants to bring you peace within this world of chaos. What are you hearing? There’s so much battling for our attention. Are we letting God’s message reach us/ He has so much in store for us. This week, try to find your peaceful place, or what brings you peace so that you may grow closer to the Lord as He is drawing near to you. Let’s keep our hearts and minds on Christ this Advent. This is what the stewardship way of life is all about, moving closer in relationship with Christ and imitation of Him, ready to celebrate His birth with eyes fixed on eternal life with Him.

Advent Prayer

Father, as we light this candle of peace we ask that You prepare our hearts for Your coming. Clear the paths in our lives that keep us from You and make room in our hearts for Your peace and presence. May we welcome You with open hearts and lives prepared for Your glory. Amen.

Thank you Knights for putting up the Nativity and for moving furniture in Bestgen Hall in preparation for Advent by Candlelight!

THE SOLEMINTY OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION

Decree Dispensing the Faithful from the Obligation to Attend Mass on December 9, 2024

Bishop McKnight has dispensed the faithful in our diocese from the obligation to attend Mass on Monday, Dec. 9. The faithful are still obliged to attend Mass on Sunday, Dec. 8 to celebrate the Second Sunday of Advent.

The Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception, a holy day of obligation, is typically celebrated on December 8.

This year, the holy day falls on a Sunday. When this happens, the Solemnity of the Immaculate Conception is moved to Monday (Dec. 9).

However, incorrect guidance was widely published and distributed nationally stating that Monday, Dec. 9 is not a holy day of obligation. In addition, there is added difficulty in scheduling a sufficient number of Masses on a regular workday in parishes sharing one priest.

Therefore, the faithful in our diocese are only obliged to attend Mass on Sunday, Dec. 8 to celebrate the Second Sunday of Advent.

Bishop McKnight is asking all priests to offer a Mass in their parishes on Dec. 9 in honor of our national patroness under the title of the Immaculate Conception, even if a Mass is not typically scheduled that day.
